

In 2009, John "Lucky" Smith is born in Jacksonville, FL. His first few months on earth are filled with joy and wonder that infants can only experience.

After a routine pre-screening, the doctor informs the parents that Lucky is deaf. Lucky is fitted with bilateral cochlear implants.

The early intervention specialist goes over numerous options regarding language development for Lucky. The parents agree on using Auditory/Verbal Therapy.

